

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Percy Shover chopped off one toe while at work in a lumber camp in Montgomery Center last week.

It is estimated that $200,000 was expended in building work, repairs and improvements in St. Albans last year.

Miss Florilla Burnap, who passed her 90th birthday anniversary in November, died Dec. 25, at her home in Townshend.

Attorney A. L. Bolles and Robert R. Twitchell have formed a law partnership in Bellows Falls, to be known as Bolles & Twitchell.

Dr. Harry P. Greene has been appointed as surgeon for the Central Vermont Railway company at Brattleboro. Dr. Greene is also surgeon for the Boston & Maine railway at Brattleboro.

About 30 friends in St. Johnsbury of Captain E. F. Griswold of East St. Johnsbury gave him a Christmas present of $335. Capt. Griswold is ill and the purse was made up to show the esteem in which he is held by his acquaintances.

Mrs. Mary Corey of Northfield, a fruit and confectionery dealer, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with Clerk F. S. Platt of the United States court. Her liabilities are $784.50 and she has assets of $464.82, with $100 claimed exempt.

A few days ago Mrs. Sylvester Murray went to the barn of her home in Ripon to feed the stock in the absence of her husband, and fell through a hole in the floor that was covered with hay. She fell ten feet, but escaped with a general shaking up.

Arthur G. Manning, an employe of the Rutland Railway, Light and Power company, was badly burned by an explosion of gas Jan. 2. All his hair was burned off and his hands and head bore deep burns. He was taken to the Rutland hospital and it is expected he will recover.

The accidental dropping of a lantern in the barn of E. J. Whitney of Salisbury caused the destruction of the building by fire, with five sheep and a pig. Damage of $1,200 is covered by insurance. Mr. Whitney was in Middlebury at the time of the fire and his son was using the lantern when it dropped and set fire to the hay.

Prof. Albert L. Smith, formerly business manager of the Bellows Falls chamber of commerce and recently professor at the Tuck school of business administration at Dartmouth college, has resigned to become manager of the industrial bureau of the New York Merchants' association. He leaves Dartmouth Feb. 1.

Mrs. Nelson P. Abbott, wife of a prominent coal dealer in Wilder, died suddenly Wednesday night. Mrs. Abbott, in company with her husband, had been to an entertainment and on reaching home she stepped out to the hen house and fell to the ground, dying instantly of heart disease.

Sherman, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams of Essex Junction, saved his own life Wednesday, when finding himself on the railroad track with a train almost upon him, he threw himself flat upon the ground. Two cars and half passed over him before the brakeman could stop the train. He was uninjured. With other children, Williams was on his way home from school when the accident occurred.

By a strange coincidence, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Owens of East St. Johnsbury were summoned to the funerals of three relatives Thursday, Dec. 28, all the funerals set for between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock. Mr. Owens' uncle, Alonzo Owens, died in Amherst, Mass., and the funeral was held in Concord; George Green, an uncle of Mrs. Owens, died in St. Johnsbury, and her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Sargent, died in Barre.

Homer Brown is recovering at his home in Enosburg Falls from a peculiar accident which befell him six weeks ago as he was lumbering in the woods. As he and another man were felling a tree, the top lodged in a tree, but the butt rolled from the stump and struck Mr. Brown's heel, which was incased in heavy rubber, and ploughed into the ground until the dirt reached nearly to Mr. Brown's knee. It took men over half an hour to release him. No bones were broken, but the muscles were badly wrenched.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy, and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Vermont First!

Editor Times: Vermont first, is the slogan of the equal suffragists. Vermont was the first state in the union to adopt universal manhood suffrage. Why not the first New England state to bestow presidential suffrage upon its women? Apart from the simple fact of justice to women as human beings and as citizens of the state who must obey her laws, is there a specific reason for Vermont's granting this privilege to her women during the coming session of the legislature? Yes, emphatically. Vermont is a Republican state and the rule now governing the national Republican convention provides that the representation from each state be based upon the number of Republican votes that were cast in that state at the last preceding election. How will this affect Vermont Republican men? After this manner. In the states where women vote, a preponderance of power will be given them, and Vermont Republican men stand a decided chance of being governed by western women. In short, unless Vermont women are given the presidential ballot, the women of a western state could outvote the state of Vermont in a national election. Ponder this and also the following fact. Forty per cent of the entire vote of the state was cast in Illinois by women. If Vermont women voted with that percentage, and they would no doubt, see how it would increase the Republican representation from Vermont. Remember this, you Republican men who will go to Montpelier shortly. You will be outvoted in your own party by western women unless you give your women presidential enfranchisement.

But from a strictly non-partisan viewpoint, which is the one convinced suffragists prefer to adopt, it is not just that some women should be allowed to vote and not all women. The New York Herald remarked editorially after the recent election: "It is nothing short of a national scandal that women should be allowed to vote in some states and not in others; that the election of a president and a national administration should be committed into the hands of men and women voters in one state or group of states when women of other states are denied the voting privilege."

That increasingly more women in Vermont desire this privilege is evident from the recent successful efforts of Mrs. Augusta C. Hughton, organizer, to whose call the women have responded heartily, for many of them who were heretofore passive, if not negatively opposed, have been aroused to positive action. Your women are asking for this bit of constructive legislation to be passed this year. As legislators you have the right to grant it to us. Therefore, in view of all the above facts will you give us presidential suffrage?

Mrs. Anna Hawks Putnam, Press Correspondent, Bennington, Jan. 1, 1917.

December Weather Report.

Meteorologist W. A. Shaw, in charge of the Northfield station of the United States weather bureau, reports a mean temperature of 19 degrees in Northfield during December. This is about a degree below the normal for the month. The highest was 32 degrees, on the 5th, and the lowest was 20 degrees below on the 30th. Temperatures of below zero occurred on eight days. The greatest daily range was 32 degrees, on the 29th, and the least daily range was three degrees, on the 7th. The precipitation (rain and melted snow) amounted to 1.78 inches, which includes 19 inches of unmelted snow. Ten inches of snow were on the ground at the end of the month. The normal December precipitation is 2.71 inches. The prevailing wind was from the north, the total movement 4,819 miles, the average hourly velocity 6.5 miles, and the maximum velocity 29 miles per hour, from the north on the 26th. The month was made up four clear, ten partly cloudy and 17 cloudy days. Precipitation in quantity sufficient to measure occurred on 16 days. Sleet fell on the 4th and 27th, a fog was noted on the 22nd, and solar halos on the 23rd and 24th.

MUSTEROLE—QUICK RELIEF! NO BLISTER!

It Soothes and Relieves Like a Mustard Plaster Without the Burn or Sting

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. It does all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with the pain it gives!

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

RHEUMATISM PAIN

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may be also said with equal truth that no remedy has been given a trial. In the hands of one observer we find that a certain drug has been used with the utmost satisfaction; others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by the administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. S. Schultze expresses the opinion of thousands of practitioners when he says that anti-kamnia tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain in all forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They are also unsurpassed for headaches, neuralgias and all pains. Ask for A-K Tablets.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatsoever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent, lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Adv.
